It was wonderful to see our children start off the term so enthusiastically. They have returned to school excited and eager to learn once again and are now fully engrossed in their curriculum learning.

Each class topic incorporates aspects of learning from a range of subject areas to ensure that our children have a broad and balanced education. Following on from the necessary restrictions over the past year, our children are now again able to engage almost fully with a pre-covid curriculum, including PE and Art. Although we obviously continue to have a strong focus on Literacy and Maths, we feel it is important that our children also experience a range of other subjects during their school day, in order to offer them the fullest possible range of learning opportunities.

Our children continue to make excellent progress and we have sought to ensure that they will be fully prepared for their transition into the next year group and for our year 6 children, their new secondary schools in September.

We will continue to follow our current health and safety procedures in the coming weeks, but we do look forward to easing these where possible in line with Government guidance over the coming months. We will of course continue to keep in regular contact with parents over any future planned changes.

Thank you again to all our families for their continued support.

Kind regards,

Angela Matthews

This week we have thought about how our words and actions can affect the people around us. We have thought about how we can make someone's day better with a smile or a compliment, and what it means to 'pay it forward' when someone does something to help us.

Dear God,

We know that words have power,
Please help us today to use our words carefully.

Help us to encourage each other and build
each other up.

Please help us never to be unkind or hurt
people with our words.

Amen

Owls class have been busy reconditioning our old planters as part of their life skills lessons. Thank you to all the donations of soil (we still need more if you have it). We can't wait to see the end results!
